Kawanda Camp

July 1 – September 15

Kawanda is located in Tete province, north from the Cahora Bassa lake, and it is an excellent area for hippo and crocodile hunts, but it offers also great possibilities for hunting leopard and other smaller species. In this area there is the possibility to hunt very good leopard, but the number of licenses is very limited.

Rates:

14 hunting days
Observer daily

USD 13.200
USD 250

Rates Include:

Transport from the border with Zambia (closest international airport) to camp, general hunting license, accommodation and full board in the hunting camp, non alcoholic drinks, first preparation of trophies. During this hunt 2 hippos, 2 crocodiles, 1 bushbuck and 1 leopard can be taken.

Rates Don't Include:

International air fares, charter flights if requested (App. USD 900), licenses and trophy fees, rifle import (USD 200), transport from Lusaka (Zambia) to Mozambique border (USD 200 app.), alcoholic drinks, tips and gratuities.
